Home Demonstration Christmas Party

The first Christmas Party of the Yuletide season was that held by the Womens Home Demonstration Club at the school cafeteria on Thursday afternoon.

The party followed the regular business and program session conducted by Mrs. A. N. Lamoureux, president.

Your books for 1949 were distributed by Miss Sara Horton, home demonstration agent. The booklet contains the programs for the various monthly sessions and a number of blank sheets for members to use in making notes of interesting points in the programs.

Miss Horton also announced that a movie on Cancer would be presented at each of the local club meetings sometime during the first three months of the new year.

Mrs. Lamoureux announced a cessation of the regular weekly dances at the Recreation Center for December.

A full calendar of social affairs coming with the season. She stated that the Center would be available for any private or community parties during the month and that the regular dances would be resumed in January.

The County Gift Display will be put on at the Home Demonstration Office in the County Court House this week and all members over the county are privileged to display samples of their handicraft at that time.

Hostess for the January meeting which will be on Food Conservation are Mrs. Thelma Bowen and Mrs. Esther Walker.

Mrs. F. W. Mutchler local handicraft chairman and Miss Horton presented an interesting demonstration on wrapping gift packages in attractive ways. Miss Horton also suggested a number of interesting home made ornaments for dressing up gift packages.

Housewives for the party were Mrs. Verda Higginbotham, Mrs. Mollie Covell and Mrs. Alice Mutchler. They had a trimmed tree and table bedecked in Yuletide colors for the reception of the gifts, which were distributed during the social hour to the various members and guests in attendance.

Apple turnovers striped with cheese and hot coffee were served to Miss Meta Monroes of Fort Myers, Mrs. Emil A. Wolf of Belle Glade, Miss Sara Horton of West Palm Beach, Mrs. J. M. Local Mason Lodge Has Election at Its Next Session Dec. 14

At the conclusion of Belle Glade Lodge, No. 271, F and A. M., on the evening of December 14th, the annual election of officers took place, and hence Master John Kirk, who will be retiring from that position, requests that a large membership attendance be present.

On Wednesday night, December 8 Grand Master Hal Adams, of Mayo, with members of his official staff and district deputies, made his official visitation to the 22nd Masonic district, of which Pahokee and Belle Glade lodges are affiliated at the hall of Gulf Street.

Large lodge at Lake Worth, which was largely attended by delegation from the eleven lodges of the district.

The grand lodge officers and the Worshipful Masters, were extended a special 9:30 o'clock banquet by the Gulf Stream Lodge. An elaborate Masonic program was presented in the lodge session, featuring the address of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Hal Adams, followed by an open house social hour.

Water Survey Recognition Of Press Action

The Florida Press Association passed a resounding resolution endorsing the $200,000 Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Project at its recent annual convention at Mr. Dora.

The resolution was offered by Owen Brice, Lakes Wales News, and member of the resolutions committee, Louis Wadsworth, the Suwannee Democrat, Live Oak, and new President of the Association, moved its adoption. His motion was seconded by Paul Randall, publisher of the Everglades News, Canal Point, and John M. Gledhill, Associate Editor of the Belle Glade Herald.

"This important civil action of the Press Association added another distinguished group to the long list of outstanding organizations supporting the project," Col. A. G. Mathews, Chief Engineer of the State Division of Water Survey and Research, stated at the time.

The resolution reviewed the drastic need for water control of the Central and Southern Florida areas, the damages caused by flood and drought and the benefits to all Florida from the project.
